

Andres Saenz

Andres Saenz is an Associate in the Morgan Stanley Institutional Securities Group (ISG) Rotational Program since August 2019, currently sitting in Morgan Stanley's Investor Relations team.

Prior to becoming an Associate in the ISG Rotational Program, Saenz spent three years in Investment Banking focused on Financial Institutions, advising clients and governments globally on a broad range of issues including mergers and acquisitions, restructurings and capital raising.

After graduating from The George Washington University in 2016, Saenz joined Morgan Stanley and served as an Analyst and an Associate in the Financial Institutions Group in both New York City and London.

Saenz holds a Bachelor of Business Administration with a concentration in Finance and International Business from The George Washington University.